Job Description: Deputy Director of Church Ambassador Network - Outreach

Frontline is hiring a Deputy Director of Church Ambassador Network (CAN) – Outreach who will grow and impact a cornerstone ministry of our organization. Church Ambassador Network connects shepherds of God’s Church with shepherds of government, speaks truth with boldness and clarity, shares the Word of God, and ministers to the leaders He has raised to positions of authority.

The Deputy CAN Director – Outreach is a relationship-maker and a catalyst. This high-energy leader will assist the CAN Director broadly in identifying and cultivating relationships with pastors, facilitating CAN meetings, and building out the ministry. The Deputy CAN Director – Outreach also has a particular heart for minority churches and building the Network to look more like and reach the Body of Christ as a whole.

Reports to: Director, Church Ambassador Network (CAN)

Compensation: Full-time, competitive salary and benefits

Location: Newnan, GA; heavy in-state travel required, occasional out-of-state travel required

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

- In partnership with the President and Policy Team, create and advance Frontline Policy Agenda;
- Build intentional relationships with pastors, church leaders, government officials (appointed, elected, staff, etc.), and other stakeholders;
- Coordinate meeting plan and strategies with CAN Director;
- Share – with boldness, humility, grace, truth, and love – the Gospel with those CAN is trying to reach;
- Encourage pastors and their churches toward God-honoring civic engagement and faithful ministry toward and, when possible, in a leading partnership with the government;
- Edify government officials, get to know them as people, care for them, and, when applicable, unashamedly speak truth to them;
- Pray regularly for and with leaders that CAN connects with;
- Execute the strategy of CAN as directed by the CAN Director and the Frontline President;
- Develop an intentional gameplan for reaching majority minority churches, ministries located in traditionally left-of-center areas, and government officials that are not often aligned with us;

- Focus uniquely on executing the aforementioned gameplan winsomely and for the cause of Christ;
- Assist government officials in developing a biblical worldview when it comes to policy, witness to them or strengthen existing faith, and facilitate church leaders growing in their fulfillment of the biblical mandate to engage government and the culture;
- In accordance with CAN strategy and as approved by the President and the Policy Team, support legislative initiatives of Frontline;
- Coordinate with Policy Team where applicable;
- Support CAN Director in meeting efforts both in and out of session;
- Work with CAN Director to produce relevant resources and tools for churches to educate their congregations toward Biblical Citizenship, white papers for elected leaders, and any other material that provides quality information and biblical worldview to stakeholders;
- Assist the President, CAN Director, and Development Team in raising revenue for the Frontline organizations, with a specific emphasis on growing church partnerships;
- Produce resources that share the vision and results of Church Ambassador Network as directed by the President and CAN Director;
- Document data, conversations, and metrics using Frontline's CRM system
- Promote and advertise CAN events effectively;
- Assist as needed at Frontline and CAN events;
- Advise the President on reaching minority communities, building broader coalitions, and winning diverse audiences to the mission of Frontline;
- Perform other duties, as directed by Frontline leadership.
